

Teacher Training Day

Stratford-upon-Avon

April 5, 2019 10am - 5pm

Join us for a free teacher training day at the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust in Stratford-upon-Avon, where we share activities developed and tested throughout the transnational learning project CultureShake.

Aimed at secondary school teachers of English in the UK and around the world who work with multilingual students. Programme also includes a display of treasures from our collections and a visit to Shakespeare's Birthplace.

To register visit www.shakespeare.org.uk/CUSHA-training

★ CultureShake ★

AN INTERCULTURAL AND MULTILINGUAL LEARNING PROJECT

Programme

Arrival at the Shakespeare Centre 9.45am for a 10am start

10.00 – 10.15 Welcome

10.15 – 11.00 The CultureShake project

11.00 – 11.15 Coffee break

11.15 – 12.00 Teaching Shakespeare in the language classroom

12.00 – 13.00 Trust Treasures display

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.30 Practical teaching activities for the multilingual classroom: online dictionaries and peer-teaching

15.30 – 15.45 Coffee break

15.45 Visit exhibition Famous Beyond Words and Shakespeare's Birthplace

For more information about the training day visit www.shakespeare.org.uk/CUSHA-training

For more information about the CultureShake project visit www.cultureshake.eu