`Treasure´

This is our shared treasure with you.

Upon are now part of "Fairies Singen" and our word). We would like to invite other people with other languages to our fairy world to fill it with more language melodies, tunes and harmonies.

Now we have a quest for you:

Find this Fairies Song in the many voices you know in the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust archives- when you are at Stratford- and bring it back to us. Translate the "Fairies Singen" into the languages you know so that more languages can join us in our song in the other world.

★CultureShake★

The Fairies sing.

First Upon spotted snakes with double tongue, bairy

Thorny hedgehogs, be not seen;

Nevets and blind-worms, do not wrong,

Come not near our fairy queen.

Chorus Philomel, with metody,

Sing in our sweet lullaby;

Lulla, lulla, lullaby; lulla, lulla, lullaby;

Newer harm, nor spell, nor charm,

Come our lovely lady nigh;

So goodnight, with lullaby.

First Weaving spiders, come not here; Fairy Hence, you long-legg'd spinners, hence!

Hence, yon long-leggid spinnens, hence! Beetles black, approach not near; Worm nor snall, do no offence

Chorus Philomel, with melody &c.
